

Do you love science?

Come volunteer with Girls Go Tech and Green By Nature at One Hundred, Fun Hundred!

The Green By Nature and Girls Go Tech programs would love adults and older girls (Cadettes-Ambassadors) to help run activities in their building at OHFH on May 5, 2012. Here are some ways you can volunteer:

Eco-Choices

Bring our environment into the hands of participants with fun activities from our Eco-Choices curriculum for grades K-5.

Tech Choices

Help girls discover a love for engineering with our Tech Choices curriculum for grades K-12.

Robotics

Girl Scout robotic teams, show off your passion for robots with activities and demonstrations.

BOG

Assist Farmer Ben in sharing the latest curriculum from the new Bothin Organic Garden.

Universe Quest

Help girls discover the night sky by sharing hands-on astronomy activities and computer games.

Portable Planetarium

Show off the night sky in the middle of the day! Ticket distributors, ticket takers and planetarium show presenters are needed.

Clown Fish/Shark Pilot

Safely fly a remote-controlled shark or clown fish through the building.

Mascots

Greet participants and have your picture taken with children as you wear the Green By Nature and Girls Go Tech mascot costumes.

MyFuture Badges

Assist the participants in the making of their "future career" badges using computer programs.

MyFuture Professionals (older girl troops preferred)

Older girls dress up as professional science, technology or environmental professionals and swap career trading cards with the participants. Costumes may include surgeon, pilot, ranger, biologist, astronaut, or make up your own!

Green Machine (older girl troops preferred)

Research specific decades in Girl Scout history, borrow the appropriate Girl Scout uniforms and accessories, and use modern technology to share stories with girls as they go back in time to discover our Girl Scout past.
