

Girl Scouts SAVE THE BAY

What is it?

Girl Scouts Save the Bay is Girl Scouts working to protect and restore our San Francisco Bay.

How will they Save the Bay?

- Discover! ...learn about the San Francisco Bay and the environment in which they live.
- Connect! ...with their communities' projects to protect and restore the Bay.
- Take Action! ...advocate for protection and restoration of our Bay on the local, state and national level, building on what they've learned.

What Girl Scouts are doing...

- Discovering the Bay and their local watersheds through outdoor programs, and scientific investigation.
- Connecting with their communities by adopting their local watersheds for protection and restoration.
- Taking action by saving water with a water conservation pledge for their families and neighbors.

Why is saving the Bay important?

The San Francisco Bay is our home: we play in its waters, we eat its fish, we take joy in its beauty. The water that feeds the Bay is the same water we drink, and the Bay provides a home and food for many birds, fish, mammals and plants. The Bay is also threatened by pollution, non-native plants, and human development in fragile wetland ecosystems. Without help, the Bay will not continue to support the animals, including ourselves, who rely on it.

About the Girl Scouts of San Francisco Bay Area

Girl Scout Mission:

"Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place!"

Girl Scouting is an American institution serving girls, their families and communities across diverse social, ethnic and economic lines. Through diverse activities and programs, girls learn life-long skills, team building, and leadership.
